Gentlemen:—The "Patent Study Desks with Kneeling-Stool attached," which you placed in the Hall of the Cathedral of the Holy Name Male School, are very satisfactory. The Kneeling-Stool attachment is convenient for all study halls, and especially in our case, where it may be expedient to use the Hall for exhibitions, lectures, sodalities and a chapel. Your 'Folding Study Desk,' with the Kneeling-Stool attached, will recommend itself as the most desirable and suitable in the market.

Most respectfully,

P. J. CONWAY, V. G.

EDITORIAL.

THE flattering success attained by the efforts of the publishers of the Directory and Clergy-List Quarterly, during the first year and the enthusiastic reception accorded this Directory by the Rev. Clergy and the Catholic Press, in every part of the United States have encouraged the publishers to continue the publication on the same plan, and the Directory will therefore be published, as it has been in the past year, with three quarterly supplements containing the changes and corrections occurring during the three months preceding each issue. The publishers have proven, beyond a doubt, that an attempt to publish a correct Directory of the clergy of the United States with only a single issue for a whole year, is an impossibility, as the changes recorded in the Clergy-List Quarterly during the past year have greatly exceeded 2,000 in number. This fact shows conclusively that the only method of making a Directory of value to the subscribers, is to furnish them with a list of the changes occurring from time to time.

IMPROVEMENTS.

In addition to this, the publishers take pleasure in calling particular attention to the alphabetical list of the Clergy, which has been entirely rewritten, and in cities with two or more churches, the address of every resident Clergyman is added. The great advantages of this system are at once apparent when it is considered that, for instance, in cities of the size of Milwaukee or Chicago, up to the present only the name of the city was given after the Clergyman's name in the General Clergy-List, thus necessitating often a search throughout the entire Diocesan report in order to find the address sought for. This addition will greatly add to the value of the Quarterly Clergy-List, which has already proven its popularity during its first year.

Another important improvement is made in the necrology, which is now arranged alphabetically instead of under dates, as was the case formerly, an arrangement which no doubt will prove of great convenience to our patrons.

The labor of compiling a work of this kind is very great, and it is done at an expense greatly out of proportion to the price charged subscribers. Still, the publishers have not hesitated, when finding it necessary to add the quarterly supplements and again in the present issue, to still further improve the Clergy-List, to make all improvements and additions which add to the value of the Directory. The same course of action will be followed hereafter and the Directory and Clergy-List will always be found a staunch friend of the Rev. Clergy, and ready at all times to make any improvements which the publication may require.

The Directory and Clergy-List is now by far the cheapest, and at the same time, the most complete publication of its kind in the United States. Four numbers in a year are furnished at the low price of 50 cents, or at an average price of only 12 1-2 cents per number, beyond doubt the cheapest publication now issued, besides being the only one published officially four times a year, and therefore the only correct edition in the United States.

In conclusion, the publishers desire to express their sincere thanks to all their patrons for the liberal aid given them in this difficult undertaking, and without which, no such success could have been attained. We tender our particular thanks to the Most Rev. Archbishops, the Rt. Rev. Bishops and the Rev. Secretaries, who so kindly furnished the necessary information and the statistics of their respective dioceses; to Rev. Thos. Fagan, who has so carefully revised the reports of the various dioceses and the General Clergy-List and to all others who have given the publishers their valuable advice and assistance.

With these few remarks, we hand the book to our patrons, and let it speak for itself.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals are the supreme council or senate of the Church, the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the hierarchy; it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College, when full, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, whose dioceses are the six "Suburban Sees"; 50 Cardinal Priests, whose titles are the "Titular Churches" of which they are appointed superiors, with jurisdiction and a right to a throne, etc., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to the churches called "deaconries." This number, however, is seldom complete.

Baltes, Right Rev. Peter J., D.D., late Bishop of Alton, Ill. Died Feb. 15, 1886. Bishop Baltes was born at Ensheim, in the Rhenish province of Bavaria, Germany, April 7, 1827. He came with his parents to America in 1833. His theological studies were made at the Sulpician Seminary, Montreal, Canada, where he was ordained, May 21, 1853. His first mission was at Waterloo, Monroe County, Ill., whence he was sent to Belleville, St. Clair County, in 1855. He was consecrated Bishop of Alton, Jan. 23, 1870.

Hendricken, Rt. Rev. Thomas F., D.D., the late Bishop of Providence, was born near the city of Kilkenny, Kilkenny, Co., May 5th, 1827, and died June 11th, 1886, in the 60th year of his age. He was left an orphan when yet very young, but inherited from respectable parents enough to support him in the pursuit of his favorite studies, which was in the knowledge of what is necessary for a Priest of the Holy Roman Catholic Church. His Bishop admiring the piety, industry and talents of the young man sent him to the college of Maynooth, where he completed a thorough course of philosophy and theology. The time anxiously looked for when he would be called to labor for the Salvation of the people of his native Diocese was approaching when he heard a voice asking him to come where his services were more needed than in Kilkenny. Rt. Rev. Bernard O'Reilly, the second Bishop of the Diocese of Hartford, which then included the states of Connecticut and Rhode Island, called at the college in search of laborers to work in the Vineyard of his fast populating Diocese. The young man knowing it to be inspired of the Holy Spirit, at once obeyed, was ordained Priest in the college of All Hallows and immediately set sail for the scene of his future labors. For the space of two years he was engaged at the Cathedral in Providence, or on missionary duty through the then small towns of Northern Connecticut. He was after this time appointed to one of the most important parishes of the Diocese in Waterbury, where monuments of his zeal, church, convent, school and Parochial residence attest the rare qualities of this devoted missionary. Having supplied all that was needed for the perfect organization of the parish he was called in 1873 to a more extended sphere, where he had ample scope for his zeal and energy. The Episcopal residence and Cathedral were built when the Catholics of Providence might be supplied with room for worship in an ordinary garret. Scarcely was he installed Bishop of the new Diocese of Providence, when he began to provide the means to suit the accommodation to the wants of the people. He bought fifty thousand dollars worth of ground on which to enlarge the Cathedral. He built a residence costing sixty thousand dollars and Pro-Cathedral where the people could worship during the building the new Cathedral, costing seventy-five thousand dollars. He built and nearly finished the new Cathedral, and paid three hundred and thirty thousand dollars for it, leaving it entirely free of debt. This speaks more than any words could for the priestly qualities of the late Bishop. He loved and labored for God and God's churches, with his whole heart, his whole soul and his whole strength.

SHANAHAN, Right Rev. Jeremiah N., D.D., Bishop of Harrisburg, Pa. Died Sept. 24, 1886. At time of his death was 51 years of age and had been twenty-seven years a priest. On July 12, 1868, he had been consecrated First Bishop of Harrisburg. Bishop Shanahan was born in Pennsylvania, and studied for the priesthood at St. Charles Seminary, Philadelphia. He was a pleasing speaker, a prelate most devoted to his duties, and was held in universal esteem. His funeral took place on Sept. 29.

Requiescant in Pace.

The American Catholic Historical Society, of Philadelphia.

Written for Hoffmann's Catholic Directory and Clergy List Quarterly, by Rev. Thomas C. Middleton, O.S.A., Villanova College, Pa.

In 1884, July 22d, was founded the American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia (Penna.), the first of its kind, it is believed, in the United States. At its first meeting, on the above date, an organization was effected, officers chosen, a hall secured, and measures taken to interest Catholics in the project.

The ends proposed by the Society were chiefly (1) to collect and preserve documents bearing on the history of the Church in this country, and (2) to establish a place of meeting for members and even outsiders who might wish to consult them.

In 1885, Dec. 26th, the Society was incorporated by the State. From the very first an interest of an earnest and most encouraging character was developed among all classes—Catholic and Protestant.

The Society now has two halls, a large one for its public meetings and a smaller one for its library and museum. Its membership amounts to 89 bishops, priests, lay men and women. Of these 67 are active members and 22 contributing ones. Up to September, 1886, its library has acquired by gift or purchase 2,686 articles of value, of which 1,881 are printed books, many of them antedating the present century and unknown to the learned Finotti, besides pamphlets, MSS., letters, etc., and 805 relics, as medals, paintings, prints, portraits, some of them unique and invaluable to the antiquarian.

During the year 1885-6 the Society held seven public meetings, in which original papers (some now published) bearing on Catholic historical topics, were read to large appreciative audiences.

The interest in Catholic Historical Societies has resulted in a second one being established in New York, and a third in Pittsburg, Pa.

The American Catholic Historical Society has received the formal blessing of His Holiness, and has been approved by the Archbishop of Philadelphia.

The first volume of its Records for the years 1884-5-6 to be an octavo of about 365 pages is now in press. It will contain the papers read before the Society, lists of members and benefactors, the baptismal registers of St. Joseph's Church (Phila.), from 1758-75, selections from the registers of St. Augustine's Church (Phila.), from 1801-37, and the result of searches in the registers of St. Peter's and St. Patrick's Churches, Baltimore, Md., and St. Peter's, Wilmington, Del. It is expected that the work will be ready for publication about Christmas.

The Society rooms are open to the public without charge. Membership is $50.00 for life members, $5.00 for active and $2.00 for contributing ones.

It solicits aid from all—money or objects of historical value, books, or relics, either by sale, or gift, or for deposit.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

City of St. Augustine, Cathedral of St. Augustine, Rev. Edw. A. Pace, D.D., rector. The congregation of St. Augustine is by far the oldest in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and it has continued to have a largely preponderating number of Catholics to the present day.

Chapel of our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel has lately been discovered and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan Friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, two hundred and eighty years ago (in 1597) was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored some years ago by Bishop Verot, but was blown down in a gale of wind.

FRANCIS BAUMER,

411 North Alvord Street, - - Syracuse, New York.

—MANUFACTURER OF—

Hand Casted, Patent Finished Wax Candles,

Molded Wax Candles, Tapers, Parlor Candles, Etc.

The enormous sales of my Hand Casted Patent finished Wax Candles during the last year, prove sufficiently, that the Rev. Clergy and Religious all through the United States appreciate their superiority over all others. An unlimited number of letters, expressing the fullest satisfaction, have been received from all parts of the country. It can be truly stated that no other Wax Candles can equal the above named Candles in quality, finish and burning.

While I especially recommend to all purchasers to use my Hand Casted, Patent Finished Wax Candles, I also manufacture a Molded Wax Candle, which I am positive, is far superior to all molded Wax Candles of other manufacturers, as a careful comparison has shown my molded candles to be not only of better looks and finish, but also superior in brightness and steadiness of flame.

Roman Candles, plain and ornamental of every description are kept in stock by all dealers, wholesale and retail, througout the United States and are sold by them at manufacturers' prices. If you want satisfaction mention Baumer's Candles, when ordering, and thus avoid disappointment and uncertainty in regard to quality and workmanship. Baumer's Candle is the leading one.

To convince the esteemed Rev. Clergy and Religious Orders of the correctness of my assertions above made, I place in testimony only one of the many complimentary letters received and remain. Your obedient servant. FRANCIS BAUMER.

Mr. Francis Baumer, Manufacturer of Wax Candles, etc.:

DEAR SIR—With great pleasure I herewith testify to the perfect satisfaction your candles have always, without any exception, given us. Your record as a lifelong member of this congregation, and your services for thirty-six years past as teacher and organist are unimpeachable, and you are deserving therefore all honor and credit. You and the members of your family have ever exercised a decided influence in our congregation by your good, Christian example and moral life in the interest of our religion and its clergy. Your workmen are also all good practical Catholics. This recommendation is more than can be given any other business man in your line in this city. This in the name of the Fathers Minor Conventuales.

St. Mary's Academy,

WINONA, MINN.

Conducted by the Sisters of St. Francis.

THIS institution for young ladies and little girls is delightfully situated in one of the most healthy and picturesque cities of the Mississippi Valley. The building, recently erected, is provided with all modern improvements. Over ten acres of play grounds invite to active exercise in the open air. Every advantage is offered for acquiring a thorough Christian education, including both the useful and ornamental. As, in the opinion of the Sisters, the acquisition of such an education should not be connected with extravagant expense, the following terms will no doubt be found very reasonable:

Board and Tuition, including Washing, Bed and Bedding, per session of five months, $70.00, payable in advance.

German, Drawing, Plain and Ornamental Needlework, free.

Music, Painting, etc., form extra charges.

The religious principles of any denomination are not interfered with, but all the pupils are required to conform to the regulations of the Institution.

For further information, address

Ven. Mother M. ALEXIA.

Pittsburg Catholic College of the Holy Ghost, Pittsburg, Pa.

This College is conducted by the Fathers of the Holy Ghost. It is duly incorporated and has full power to confer academic degrees. The curriculum is so arranged as to supply a complete, liberal education in Classics, Mathematics, Modern Languages and Science; but special facilities are afforded such pupils as desire to direct their attention exclusively or chiefly to business pursuits.

In each division of subjects there are several distinct classes, graduated to suit the different ages and capacities of pupils.

A special diploma is given at the end of the business course.

The school hours are from 9 A. M., to 2:30 P. M., including half an hour for lunch. The pension for ordinary day pupils is $5 and $6 per month, according to the classes in which they are. At an extra charge of $6 per month, boys are admitted to dine in the College at noon and prosecute their studies until 5 P. M. Besides, a limited number of boys are received to board altogether in the College from Monday morning until Friday evening at a charge of $16 per month, including tuition. Boys whose parents live some distance from town, can be accomodated as full boarders for $20 per month. There is for all boarders an entrance fee of $5.

Besides the lay students the establishment also includes

SCHOLASTICS.

These students live apart and are such as, believing themselves called to religious and missionary life in the Society of the Holy Ghost, pursue here a full collegiate course preparatory to entering on the study of Philosophy and Theology. Young men are admitted to probation in this department, on presenting satisfactory testimonials. In addition to the above, young men who feel a vocation to the religious state alone, without wishing to advance to the Priesthood, may enter the Society as LAY BROTHERS.

These enjoy all the advantages of religious life. They aid the Priests of the Society on the Missions and in the various establishments. Satisfactory testimonials and certain qualifications are required before being admitted among the Lay Brothers. For further particulars apply to

The President.

Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y.

No extra charge for Languages. Students in every class have an opportunity of learning German.

The College buildings are large and commodious. A Villa House on the outskirts of the city has been provided, where the students spend their extraordinary recreation.

The College possesses a very complete Philosophical Apparatus, and additions are being constantly made to its collections of Mineralogy and Geology. There is a large and increasing Library, to which the students have access on the payment of a small fee.

A Great Railway.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company now owns and operates nearly fifty-six hundred miles of thoroughly equipped road in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri and Dakota. Each recurring year its lines are extended in all directions to meet the necessities of the rapidly populating sections of country west, northwest and southwest of Chicago, and to furnish a market for the products of the greatest agricultural and stock raising districts of the world. In Illinois it operates 320 miles of track; in Wisconsin, 1,220 miles; in Iowa, 1,575 miles; in Minnesota, 1,125 miles; in Dakota, 1,190 miles; in Missouri (now building), 150 miles, and the end is not yet. It has terminals in such large cities as Chicago, Milwaukee, La Crosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Fargo, Sioux City, Council Bluffs, Omaha and Kansas City, and along its lines are hundreds of large and small thriving cities, towns and villages. Manufacturing interests are cultivated, and all branches of trade find encouragement. The Railway Company has a just appreciation of the value of its patrons, and its magnificent earnings are the result of the good business tact which characterizes the management of its affairs.

The popularity of the line is attested by the fact that notwithstanding the strongest kind of competition of old and new lines, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway continues to carry fully sixty per cent. of all the business between Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. It is the best patronized route to and from all points in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota and Iowa, and on the completion of its Kansas City line early in 1887, it will undoubtedly take equal rank with the older lines leading to and from the southwest.

On all its through lines of travel the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway runs the most perfectly equipped trains of Sleeping, Parlor and Dining Cars and Coaches. No effort is spared to furnish the best accommodations for the least money, and, in addition, patrons of the road are sure of courteous treatment from its employes.

Take it all in all, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul is the peer of any railway in this or any other country.

HEATING BY PURE AIR,

— AND —

VENTILATION

— AS APPLIED TO —

SCHOOLS, HOUSES, and CHURCHES.

Hess Stove Works,

CHICAGO.

The advantage of our system of heating consists in the perfect quality of the air, and the wonderful economy of fuel. The air to be breathed passes through tubes behind and away from the fire, and does not come in contact with over-heated cast iron. Our gas-burning fire-pot burns the gas and smoke. All the heat generated from the combustion of the fuel, the gas and the smoke, is retained in the house, and does not go up the chimney. These goods save their cost in two seasons, besides giving a summer atmosphere through the house. Adapted to all fuels.

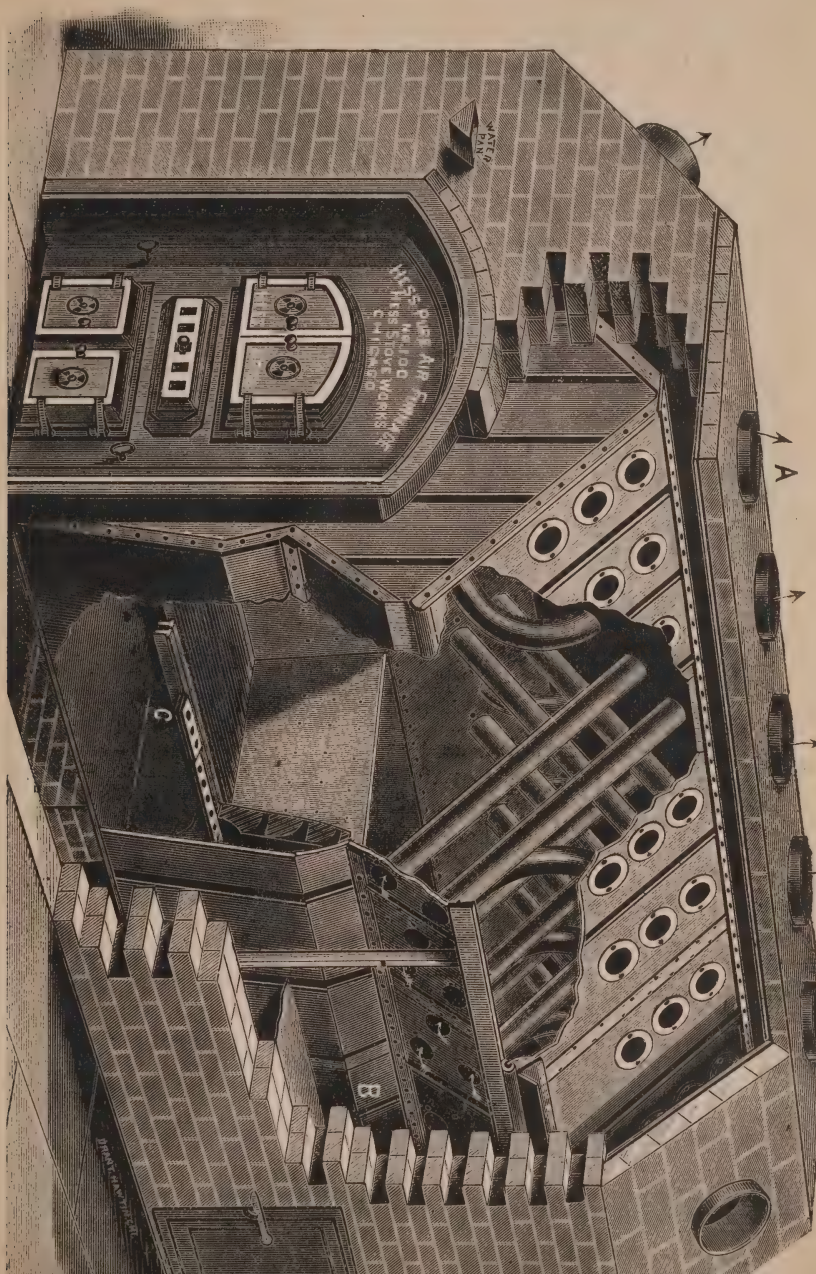

We make nine sizes of Portable Furnaces with vertical flues as shown in above cut, and five sizes of larger ones with diagonal flues as shown in large cut on opposite page.

We also make Heating Stoves for dwellings and small rooms; and large school-rooms and churches.—13 sizes—on same principal. The effect of heating the vertical air tubes is to draw the cold air from the floor from all parts of the room, and heating it to deliver it out of the top of the heater, thus heating by circulation, making the entire atmosphere of the room uniform throughout. These goods are in use by:

REV. D. A. TIGHE,	Chicago.
REV. WM. MURPHY,	Grafton, Neb.
REV. M. A. KENNEDY,	Lincoln, Neb.

CHICAGO, 207 WABASH AVE. MILWAUKEE, 413 EAST WATER ST.

Our Roman Collars, Rabbis, Stiff and Folding Berettas,

ARE THE BEST MADE, BECAUSE

COLLARS

Are 4-ply linen, fine and well made, sloped to fit the neck, having three extra button holes in the collar-band, to which the Rabbi (or stock) can be buttoned. This is a great convenience, and does away with the usual riding or slipping up. We make all sizes in length, but in depth as follows:

The No. 2 ¾ inch deep | The No. 4..... 1 inch deep
No. 3..... ⅞ inch deep | No. 5.....1⅛ inch deep

In ordering, specify the length and number of depth wanted.

RABBIS

Are made of the best silks, velvets and satins, in many different styles, from the plainest to the most elaborate. Are also sloped to fit the neck, and are buttoned to our collars by three buttons on the neck-band, which does away with all strings and metal neck-bands, adding greatly to the comfort of the wearer.

BERETTAS,

Both Stiff and Folding, are made of the best material and workmanship we can obtain. We aim to make as light a hat as possible for the comfort of the wearer. Our FOLDING BERETTAS are a novelty and convenience, which is gaining favor wherever used. They are similar in shape to the STIFF BERETTA, and can be folded and put into the neat box which comes with them. When removed from the box they can be sprung into shape again. They are very convenient for traveling, as they fold into a small package to carry in a valise or coat pocket.

A Popular Defense of Christian Doctrines.

Vol. 1; Modern Scientific Views and Christian Doctrines Compared.

His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, in a communication of May 4th, 1885, to his Grace M. Heiss, Archbishop of Milwaukee:

"I take this occasion of requesting your Grace to offer my congratulations to Rev. John Gmeiner, of your Theological Seminary of St. Francis, for his admirable brochure on 'Modern Scientific Views and Christian Doctrines Compared.' I have read it with delight and edification. It is clear, learned, convincing, and to the point."

The Dublin Review, April, 1885:—"This unpretentious little volume.....is a treasury of scientific information and philosophical criticism.....In small compass we have here a lucid refutation of the more popular and widespread errors of the day.....

The general reader will rise from the perusal of this little work, not merely instructed and entertained, but, what is vastly more important, with his faith strengthened in the dogmas of the Church, and his mind comforted by the evident harmony reigning between religious and scientific truth. To those whose duties oblige them to mix in infidel society, this volume may be strongly recommended. Indeed, it is on the side of a false science and a corrupt philosophy that we must chiefly look for the tempest that is to try us. The true wisdom, then, is not to shirk difficulties or to deny facts, but to answer the one and to explain the other. Considering its very limited size and the extent of the ground it covers, this task has been ably done in the present volume."

Most Rev. William Henry Elder, Archbishop of Cincinnati:—"Such books are particularly useful in our present day. And I hope the success of this one will be such as to encourage you in future labors in the same field."

Price per copy: Paper 35 cts.; cloth 60 cts. Sent post paid on receipt of price.

Vol. II: The Spirits of Darkness and Their Manifestations on Earth; or, Ancient and Modern Spiritualism.

Most Rev. William H. Gross, Archbishop of Portland, Oregon:—"Your copy of Rev. J. Gmeiner's work on 'The Spirits of Darkness' has come to hand. I am truly glad that a work for the people on this subject has appeared.....We find the immense number in our day who deny the very existence of the devil and of his influence in this world. And on the other hand, there are multitudes who are led by these spirits into Spiritualism and other superstitions. This work therefore for our Catholics is opportune in order to show them the teachings of the Infallible Church on this live question."

The Catholic World, a Monthly Magazine, New York:—"Spiritism is a tumble from infidelity into diabolism. Father Gmeiner's book instructs one how to test spirits. It first shows how indubitably true are many of the claims of spiritists as to actual manifestations. It then compares good and evil spirits together, proving, plain as day, the evil character of the beings who have revealed themselves by mediums and by other such methods. The book tells what tests are to be applied to discover what kind of a messenger asks our credence. It shows how all right reason and all experience must insist on credentials being presented by ambassadors from the realms beyond the grave..... We are glad to see that the price is quite moderate, placing this useful little volume within reach of all."

Right Rev. A. J. Glorieux, Vicar-Apostolic, Boise City, Idoho:—"Please to accept my sincere thanks for the book entitled 'The Spirits of Darkness.'.....I read it with great pleasure, and like it very much."

Price per copy: Paper 35 cts; cloth 60 cts. Sent post paid on receipt of price.
